Boards and Commissions

Arts Commission

You are invited to join members of the Arts Commission in a Community Study Session about the draft San Jose Cultural Connection: San Jose's Cultural Vision Plan.

Date: Wednesday, April 7, 2010

Time: 6:00 - 7:30 p.m.

Location: Roosevelt Community Center - Community Room

901 East Santa Clara Street at S.19th Street, San Jose

(NOTE: Roosevelt Community Center is just .9 mile east of City Hall, at S. 19th Street. Parking is in the rear; please note that the entrance to the parking lot is on S. 21st Street.)

San Jose Cultural Connection: San Jose's Cultural Vision Plan (draft) is now available online at:

www.sanjoseculture.org/downloads/Cultural_Connection_DRAFT_Plan_4-1-10.pdf

BACKGROUND

The City of San Jose is preparing a Cultural Vision Plan to guide the community's cultural development in the coming decade. This plan will inform Envision San Jose 2040, the update to the City's general plan, and will also function as a stand alone plan for the Office of Cultural Affairs, City government and our partners in the community. It is a noteworthy milestone that, for the first time in San Jose's history, the City's general plan will include an arts and culture element that will serve as a blueprint for cultural development for the next 10-15 years.

Please RSVP to rsvpculturalaffairs@sanjoseca.gov or by calling 408.277.5144 ext. 31.

Metropolitan Transportation Commission

2010 Transportation Awards Excellence in Motion

Click Here to Nominate!

Call for Nominations - Deadline is April 30

Do you know a person or organization that has made an extraordinary contribution to the way people get around in the Bay Area? Is your bus driver the friendliest, most helpful person on earth? Do you know of an innovative effort to boost smart growth, reduce harmful carbon emissions, or encourage other climate-friendly behavior? Isn't it time they get the recognition they deserve?

Once every two years the Metropolitan Transportation Commission (MTC) hands out awards to the people and organizations that have made an extraordinary contribution to the way that we get around the Bay Area. See accompanying photos for a sampling of winners from our last program.

MTC is currently seeking nominations of those who have made significant improvements in the safety, efficiency, or quality of your daily travels, as well as those who have spearheaded smart growth or have gone beyond the call of duty as a transportation professional. MTC bestows awards in a variety of categories at a ceremony to be held in October 2010, and nominations are due by Friday, April 30.

For more information on the Excellence in Motion awards program, or to submit your nomination online, please visit: www.mtc.ca.gov/about\_mtc/awards/

For more information or to have a nomination form mailed to you, e-mail info@mtc.ca.gov or phone the MTC Public Information office at 510.817.5757.

Public Streetlight Plan

San José Seeks Resident Input on New Public Streetlight Plan

Community Meeting, Wednesday, April 7

7:00 - 8:30 p.m.

Roosevelt Community Center, 901 E. Santa Clara Street, San José

- Curious about the white streetlights being installed around San José?
- Do you walk, bike, drive or jog after dark?
- Concerned by the inability to discern colors under San José's yellow streetlights?

Then join us at this San José-sponsored community meeting.

The City will be presenting the results of detection tests and surveys conducted at San José's streetlight demonstrations held in early March. We will discuss the implications of that data and how the City proposes to apply it to reduce the City's energy consumption, improve the quality of lights on City streets, and protect the night sky.

For more information or questions, contact streetlightdemo@sanjoseca.gov.

San Jose Public Library

22nd Annual San Jose Children's Faire

Saturday, April 24 at Discovery Meadow

(in front of the Children's Discovery Museum)

10:30 a.m. to 3:00 p.m.

“Going Wild with Nature: Adventures in Our Backyard” is the theme for this year's annual event, which features family-oriented stage entertainment, special attractions, and activity booths offering hands-on activities for children, ages two to 12, in addition to information about education, child care, health and safety resources, creative arts and recreational programs. Check out the children's art displays, providing insight into the imagination and development of young children. The Faire—a free, one-day, outdoor festival highlighting April's “Month of the Young Child” celebration—is designed to link parents and caregivers of young children with community organizations that serve their needs. For information, visit www.sjlibrary.org/moyc.htm or call (408) 808-2617.

“California of the Past”

Share Your Story! – An Invitation to Capture “California of the Past”

The Digital Storytelling program is now open to participation from anyone who has a story they would like to share about living and/or working in San Jose. The goal is to capture a wide range of stories and themes that explore and build local community. All stories become part of the statewide collection, “California of the Past.” The Digital Story Station is located on the 5th floor (525) in the Cultural Heritage Center, and interested parties can call to make an appointment with a staff member. Get inspired by viewing some of the interesting stories resulting from the pilot phase, Latino Storytelling Project. Anyone seeking more information may call Stacy Mueller @ 408-808-2136, or visit our website: <http://www.sjlibrary.org/about/events/digitalstory.htm>.

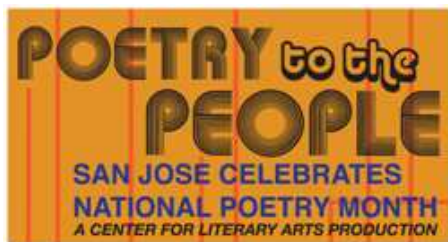

The library continues to seek historical insight on “mystery images” contained in the King Library Special Collections Digital Collection; both from current residents and those who have moved away. Use the “Tell us about this item” link at the top of each image page to share with us what you may know about these images!

Summer Reading Celebration

Water Your Mind This Summer – READ!

Summer is just around the corner, and whether it's the heat that keeps you indoors or summer vacation that brings more free time, there's nothing like a good book to pass the time. San José Public Library's Summer Reading Celebration kicks off on June 12. All participants in the eight-week program will register online. Kids who enroll in the children's program—"Make a Splash, READ!"—will receive a print log to track their progress. Participants in the teen and adult programs ("Make Waves at your Library" and "Water Your Mind, READ," respectively) will log their experiences online. For further news and developments, check the library website (www.sjlibrary.org), contact your neighborhood library or call King Library Youth Services at (408) 808-2183.
